THE WEATHER TODAY

ONE CENT.

NO. 2820.

WASHINGTON, D. C., MONDAY, JUNE 29, 1914.

AUSTRIAN HEIR AND HIS WIFE SHOT TO DEATH AETER ESCAPING BOMB

Archduke Franz Ferdinand and Morganatic Spouse Assassinated by Youth in Streets of Sarajevo After Infernal Machine Hurled by Anarchistic Compositor Fails to Explode Until After They Pass.

COURTS OF EUROPE PLUNGED INTO MOURNING: AGED EMPEROR MAY NOT SURVIVE THE SHOCK

Sarajevo, Bosnia, June 28 .- The Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the throne of Austro-Hungary, and his morganatic wife, the Duchess of Hohenberg, were assassinated while driving through the streets of this city this morning. They were shot to death after escaping a bomb that was thrown at their motorcar and warded off by the archduke's BRYAN MUM ON REPORT Dolphin Docks at Navy Yard Just Two

They were on their way to a reception at the town hall when the bomb was thrown. It did not explode until after the archduke's car had passed and the occupants of the next car, Count Boos Waldeck and Col. Morizzi, the archduke's aid de camp were injured slightly Among the spectators six persons were more or less seriously hurt.

LINER CALIFORNIA ON

ROCKS OFF IRISH COAST

in Dangerous Position on

Toy Island.

from New York to Glasgow was ground-which rendered the island invisible.

patrolling the coast for Ulster gun-run-

According to the latest advices reached here, the California is hard aground, but in no immediate danger, sithough her

The California lies in five fathoms of water forward and seven fathoms astern.

Meanwhile several vessels which sponded to the wireless calls, are stand-

Wife Shocks Rulers.

o remain aboard over night.

Franz Ferdinand of Austria.

the Duchess of Hohenberg."

myself I will return to Berlin."

"The regatta will continue, As for

The Kaiser was deeply affected as he

Rome, June 25.-When the news of the went to the chapel where he prayed for Tomorrow's reception of the Catholic

'ROYAL PALM SPECIAL' IN DITCH

Crescent southbound passenger train, No.

societies has been cancelled.

had been the guest of the murdered

The passengers and crew have decided

The perpetrator was a newspaper compositor named Cabrinovitch from Trevinje.

Angered by Attack.

The archduke ordered his car halted but after he had found out what had happened he continued on his way to the Ship with Over 400 Aboard Reported town hall, where the councillors with the mayor at their head awaited them. The mayor was about to begin his address of welcome when the archduke interrupted WARSHIPS ARE STANDING BY him angrily saying:

"Herr Buergermeister, it is perfectly scandalous. We have come to Sarajevo on a visit and a bomb has been thrown at us.

The archduke paused for a moment and "Now you can go on."

Thereupon the mayor delivered his ad dress to the archduke who made a suitable reply. The public, which by this time had heard of the bomb attempt, burst into loud cries of "hurrah."

shots Ring Out.

going around the town hall for bows are badly stove in and she is takhalf an hour the archduke started for the ing water through two breaks in the fore Garrison Hospital to visit Col. Morizzi, and second holds. who had been taken there after the outrage. As the archduke reached the corner of Rudolf street two pistol shots were fired in rapid succession by a young man named Gavro Prinzip. The first shot struck the Duchess low down on the right side, while the second hit the archduke in by ready to transship the passengers in the neck near the throat and pierced if necessary.

The duchess became unconscious immidiately and fell across the knee of ner husband. The archduke also lost consciousness in a few seconds. The motorcar in which they were scated drove straight to the palace, where army sur- Europe into mourning. King George, Neither the archduke nor the duchess

The authors of both attacks, who were arrested promptly, are born Austrians. Cabrinovitch worked for a few weeks in the government printing works at Bulgrave. He returned to Sarajevo as a Servian Chauvinist and made no concealment of his sympathy with the king of expressed themselves to the police in most cynical terms about their crimes. It appears that after the first attempt on their lives the duchess did not want the archduke to enter the motercar again, but the governor of Bosnia, M. racing through the Baltic Sea, in con-Potiorek, said: "It's all over now, We nection with the Kiel regretta. His haven't got more than one murderer in Hohenzollern, where he announced;

At this the archduke decided to enter the car again.

Before their departure from Vienna on the journey to Sarajevo the archduke and duchess went to the chapel in the palace and spent a long time in prayer, prince early in the present month at Recently the archduke has declared more than once his conviction that he would not die a natural death.

assassination of Archduke Francis Fer-The mayor of Sarajevo issued a proclamation to inhabitants denouncing the dinand and his wife was received here Reported to Have Discontinued March crime and declaring that the confession this afternoon, Pope Pius was in his priof the murderers proves beyond all vate library conversing with his sisters doubt that the bomb came from Bel- and niece. Cardinal Merry Del Val gently broke the news. His holiness remained a few minutes spechless and then

The youth Prinzip, who fired the fatal a long time, shots, is only nineteen. He fired at the archduke's head and must have been well instructed, for he apparently was aware of the well-guarred secret that the archduke always wore a coat of silk woven obliquely, which no weapon or bullet could pierce. This fabric is used for automobile tires and is puncture proof.

11. the "Royal Palm Special," running Later details show that the assassin between Chicago and Jacksonville, was darted from his hiding place behind a wrecked this afternoon about a mile from house and actually got on the motorcar this place. in which the archduke and his wife were sitting and took close aim, first at the archduke and then at the duchess

The fact that no one stopped the as sassin and that he was allowed to perpetrate the dastardly act indicate that that the conspiracy had been carefully

CONTINUED ON PAGE THREE,

BITTER TOWARD FORMER WIFE.

Special to The Washington Herald. New York, June 28.—James Cunningham Bishop, banker and clubman, who was divorced by Abigail Hancock Bishop last year has convinced Justice Goff that he does not intend to dodge paying his former wife alimony of $385 a week by leav-

Mrs. Bishop wanted the court to compel Bishop to file a bond to guarantee paynent, but after hearing Mr. Bishop Justice Goff denied her application.

Mr. Bishop says he never threatene "to put his wife in the gutter," but he did tell her when they separated in November, 1912, that she would land in the gutter if she did not change her habits. He says she since has "surrounded herself with parasites who pander to her tendencies and encourage her litiguous inclination."

ENVOY IN GREECE OUIT, IS BELIEF

Overwhelmed by Atrocities, Minister Williams Is Said to Have Resigned.

Secretary Denies Diplomat Cabled His Resignation-Public Criticism of Albanian Ruler Started Trouble.

Fred Williams, United States Minister to

Greece and Montenegre. The contents of the official report as being carefully guarded from the public sion was so important he would have by Mr. Bryan, however, and he would gone to the White House last night but make no statement other than to deny for this delay. the report that Mr. Williams' resigna-It was learned on good authority, how-Special Cable to The Washington Herald.

Londonderry, Ireland. June 28.—The Anchor Line steamer California bound the Balkan warfare recently witnessed the Dolphin in a few days. by him, had been led into expressions ed tonight on the rocks of Toy Island, off the coast of Donegal in a dense fog which are regarded here as "unwise." It is fully believed that the United strong emotion, severely criticized the then commander-in-chief. Rear Admiral seeking to protect his own interests in "S O. S' calls from the steamship brought speedy assistance from several gunboats and torpedo boats, which were Wied.

That the Prince of Wied has no powers n Albania is admitted by officials here be substantially true, and he is believed to have stirred up much of the fighting there, which in the north is beginning to assume more than ever a conflict of Christians against Mohammedans. partment officials last night that Minister Williams, in speaking of this fact, had cone so far as to say that the government of the Prince of Wied had sucseeded only in one thing-prevailing upo the religious and racial elements of Al bania to annihilate each other.

COURTS OF EUROPE SHOCKED. The report from Mr. Williams will be submitted to President Wilson Assassination of Austrian Heir and before any part of it is made public.

COMPLETE HISTORY OF MAN. London, June 38.-The terrible news from Vienna has thrown all courts of Missing Half of Ancient Tables who only last November entertained the unfortunate Austrian heir and his wife Philadelphia, June 28.-The missing half gave any sign of life, and the head of at Windsor, was distressed greatly, and of the clay tablet, the other half of Samuel Mintz Hardware Company, was sent a private message of sympathy to which has just been translated by Dr. Emperor Franz Josef. He then issued Stephen Langdon, of Jesus College, Ox- today. Less than a block away the a command that the court shall wear ford, and bearing upon the early history mourning for one week for his imperial of man, has been found in the Univerand royal highness the late Archduke sity of Pennsylvania.

> The lord chamberlain has been com- was broken and only half its contents A pistol with five empty cartridges was manded by the King to announce that could be read. A search was made at found near the unknown man's body. the state ball arranged to take place the museum for the missing portion and Monday evening is postponed "on ac- yesterday it was found.

count of the lamentable death of Arch- It is in almost perfect condition and duke Franz Ferdinand of Austria and photographic copy will be sent at once to Oxford. There is no one in this country who can translate it, nor is there any ceived the news of the tragedy by a like those made by Dr. Langdon. So fast destroyer while on board his yacht photograph will be sent in the hope that he can translate it sufficiently well until a more desirable copy can be furnished. majesty ordered the race stopped, and It is expected that this will greatly mmediately returned to the steam yacht enhance the value of the discovery and will complete the story of the creation the flood, and the fall of man. There is great anxiety at the university to know

VILLA ORDERS TROOPS BACK FROM THE FRONT

on Mexico City to Force Showdown with Carranza.

cial to The Washington Herald. El Paso, Texas, June 38.-A bulletir from Zacatecas states that Gen. Villa has ordered his entire army to move back to Will Not Tolerate Interference in Torreon on Monday.

The only explanation known here for this move is that it is due to the split between Villa and Carranza. Instead of continuing the forward facing those of Carranza.

WOMAN KILLS A BIG BEAR.

Special to The Washington Inc.
Libby, Mont., June 28.—Last Thursday The accident was caused by the rails giving way on a new "fill." The engine Mrs. Tom Fleetwood proved that she had and two cars rolled over a twenty-foot a steady nerve and a good eye when she and lifted the embargo on arms, but embankment. The fireman jumped, but shot and killed a black bear, weighing now they have assumed a dictatorial attithe engineer stuck to his post and was 300 pounds, near the Brooks camp. This badly crushed. The passengers escaped was the first time Mrs. Fleetwood had serious injury, but many sustained ever fired a rifle, yet it took but one numerous brulses.

Index. Pacific. For the last four years he lived ably fatally, when a Louisville and Nash-town and Winchester and Chira. There he read aimost day. About a dozen passengers were insulated but none seriously.

Pacific. For the last four years he lived ably fatally, when a Louisville and Nash-town and Winchester and Chira. There he read aimost day. About a dozen passengers were insulated but none seriously. the engineer stuck to his post and was 300 pounds, near the Brooks camp. This tude."

GARRANZA'S AGENTS HERE DENY "BIG BUSINESS" IS SUPPORTING REVOLUTION

Statements of Financial Activity of American Oil Interests in Fomenting Mexican Trouble Emphatically Refuted in Bitter Replies from Sherburne G. Hopkins and Other Members of War Chief's Junta in the Capital.

Published statements to the effect that the Mexican revolution is eing financed by "big business" in this country met with emphatic denials by Carranza's representatives in Washington.

They declared that not a penny from these sources has been reeived by Carranza, and furthermore that he has laid down the general principle that no funds of this siness in fomenting the Mexican revo ution, based upon letters taken from the files of Sherburne G. Hopkins, a Wash ngton lawyer who has represented Carranza here, caused a stir at constitution

Carranga tunta in asserting that not a dellar had been received by Carranza from Mr. Pierce, or any other business

Challenge to Newspaper.

which were threatened by the continued

Other efforts by Mr. Pierce, he contend which had been interrupted by Huerta.

While the letters themselves show on heir tace that Hopkins was doing every

In fact, the latter has manifested ar

tions in favor of Mr. Pierce's interests

CONTINUED ON PAGE TEN.

NAILED TO MAST? NO.

Old Glory Flies During Storm, but Is

Promptly Hauled Down When

President Finds Out.

tured a heavy rainstorm in Washington last night revealed the stars and strines still flying from the top of the flagstaff on the White House. The flag is supposed to fly there when the President is in the White House, but the mast, and that was his answer to his adversaries who insist that he must surrender in his campaign for trust legislation and permit Congress of a servant. Five minutes later when the lightning flashed the flag no longer waved and only the black line of the staff stood out against the sky.

cat, too weak to cry any longer.

special to The Washington Herald.

only between sunrise and sunset.

Vivid fiashes of lightning that fea-

WHITE HOUSE BANNER

military management.

very far with Carranga.

Carranza's representatives backed up

GALE DELAYS ARRIVAL OF ADMIRAL FLETCHER

Hours Late, Making White House Conference Impossible.

PLANS HERE NOT MADE KNOWN

A severe squall on the Potomac last and his actions there were received last night delayed the arrival of Rear Ad- time as counsel for Henry Clay Pierce, miral Frank Friday Fletcher from Vera of the Pierce oil interests, but he joined Cruz about two hours. Coming all the yesterday with the other members of the way here on the Dolphin to confer with President Wilson relative to the Vera Cruz situation, it is very likely his mis-

Reaching the navy yard at 10:15 o'clock. tion was included in the cable dispatch. Rear Admiral Fletcher lost no time turning in, and refused to see reporters. He New York Herald, which is printing the ever, that conditions are as bad or worse probably will go to the White House correspondence, to show in any way that off the map. The once famous resort than stated in unofficial reports from for a conference with the President this the Carranza revolution had ever been morning. Just what his plans are for financed doubt that Minister Williams, appalled his stay here could not be learned. He sources. by the sight of atrocities practised in probably will return to Vera Cruz on Intense interest has been shown in Washington over the coming of the com- propaganda here, declared that Mr. mander-in-chief of the Atlantic ficet. Pierce was entirely within his rights States minister, under the stress of He handled the Vera Cruz crisis until the and duties as an American citizen in presence in Albania of the Prince of Badger, arrived and shared all responsi- Northern Mexico. bility with his superior after that. The Mr. Hopkins contended that Mr. Pierce's information which has naturally come to sole purpose in urging the isolation by Rear Admiral Fletcher from the Mexican Carranza of the railroads in Northern interior, together wit his familiarity Mexico into a separate system, with with general conditions around Vera Cruz, civil management, was to protect his own his counsel here invaluable at and the holdings of other Americans

The Dolphin made a special trip to Vera Cruz to fetch him here and the crew reported a pleasant voyage but ed, related solely to the reopening of for a few squalls. The Dolphin was re- Northern Mexico to his oil business ported in the Potomac about 4 o'clock and preparations were at once begun at the Navy Yard for the reception of and Mr. Pierce and between Hopkins and

DUEL TO DEATH FOLLOWS HOLD-UP

Bodies of Prominent Detroit Manufacturer and Unknown Man, Clasping Revolvers, Found in Street.

pecial to The Washington Herald. Detroit, Mich., June 28.-John A. Burbank, president and treasurer of the shot to death in Hancock avenue early body of an unknown man, also shot was

In Burbank's right hand a revolver Dr. Langdon lamented that the tablet with three empty chambers was grasped. The police theory is that an attempt was made to hold-up Burbank as he was returning home, that he refused to surrender the money in his possession and the duel to death followed.

TAIT WINS A GOOD COOK.

cial to The Washington Herald. R. Joseph, Mo., June 28.—Ben Black pleaded guilty in the criminal court today of burglary. His loot had been only a few cents.

"What is your occupation?" asked th

"I am a cook," said Black. Hastily Deputy Sheriff Moore approach d the judge's bench.

"We haven't a single cook in the jail o prepare the meals for the prisoners, he whispered to Judge Ryan. Well, we will just change the charge to adjourn. petty larceny and give you a year in However, newspaper men who called jail," said the court. "That will keep up the White House and inquired you out of the penitentiary and give the the why and wherefore of the unusual tail a cook in the bargain." display of Old Glory were promptly Black wept for joy. assured that the flag had been left up through the mistake or oversight

CARRANZA RAPS U. S.

Mexican Affairs.

Monterey, June 28.-Gen. Carranza last night closed the celebration started here in his honor three days ago with a public declaration that the constitutionalists movement on Mexico City, Villa is bring-would not tolerate the interference of ing his troops back where they will be the United States in readjusting the interior affairs of Mexico.

The reference to mediation was veiled, ut nevertheless, direct. He said: "As the constitutionalists grew strong and conquered state after state in the north, the United States became friendly merchant and bridegroom of a few days; his partner, John Blanchi; Peter Martin, a telephone lineman, and John Flynn, bookkeeper, are under arrest in Canaan as the result of minors having imbibed Graves and his bride a few evenings ago. The cases are scheduled to come before Justice Ford July 6.

The serenade which welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Graves upon their return from Poughkeepsie was attended by two hundred Canaanites, including many leading

While the Cansan band was playing tango music several kegs of beer showed up in a nook and the contents were passed out. Some village youths over indulged, it is said.

CITY LASHED BY FURY OF STORM

Wind Leaves River View, Md., character shall be accepted for the promotion of the constitutionalist Resort a Twisted Mass of Debris. The statements of the activity of big SUBURBS ARE HIT HARD was bombarding the city.

Trees Damaged in Capital, Window Panes Smashed, and Traffic Tied Up-Lightning Plays Pranks.

Leaving in its wake a mass of twister trees and partially wrecked buildings. wind, rain and electrical storm which swept Washington and vicinity last night, caused $100,000 damage Suburban villages and pleasure resor: were hit hard. The city escaped without any great amount of injury, though lightning played numerous pranks, while the rain and wind tied up traffic, and greatly interferred with telephonic and telegraphic communications.

their denials with a challenge to the Riverview, Md., practically was wiped Bathing Girls Meet Death in Deep now is but a pile of debris, the big chutefrom American or foreign the-chute collapsing at the height of the storm, while several other buildings were destroyed. The pavilion and ice cream PALL BESETS MERRYMAKERS Hopkins, while acknowledging that he has acted as Henry Clay Pierce's counsel stand alone escaped. The resort hotel while promoting the constitutionalist was unroofed

While the resort has been abandon for the last two years by white people, of Washington. Several hundred negroes at the place during the storm were terror by a railway train at the Potoman Railstricken, and in returning last night on way yards. the steamer Angler told remarkable stories of escapes.

A half dozen or more valuable and uprooting of numerous trees. From further down the river come re- city.

ports of heavy damage to summer cot-The letters passing between Hopkins many sinking. In Washington little harm was done, way passenger train. Hopkins says, from his desk a few weeks through a transom and removed the doc-

Lightning Strikes House.

thing possible to promote the interest of the Pierce interests in Mexico, there is Herman, destroying a chimney and setno evidence that he succeeded in getting checked, however, before much damage William E. Hinken, Emmett L. Finks and was done to the structure.

apparent indifference toward his suggeslightning at 725 Eighth street southeast. This fact was pointed out by the constioccupied as a shoe shop by Vincent tutionalists here as proof that Mr. Marino. The lightning passed down an Pierce's influence did not extend beyond electric cable which feeds the machinery in the shop, and started the plant in lighted up that a pedestrian pulled fire alarm box 518. When firemen arrived but for a moment and stopped. TWAS A SAD MISTAKE of the city were splintered by lightning that conveyed the bodies. or twisted by the wind, while the hail plugged holes through a thousand or the day. more window panes. Traffic on the Glen Echo line of the pecial to The Washington Herald. ing his motorcycle into high speed when confronted by a masked hold-up man, Rumors epread over the city that the President had nailed his flag to daylight robbery six miles from the city of the vehicle and was in the act of resterday afternoon.

CONTINUED ON PAGE TEN,

MOTORCYCLE FOILS BANDIT.

Senning, throwing on all his power, ran him. the thug down and bowled him over.

MOTHER'S FEARS REALIZED.

San Bernardino, June 28.-Antonio Esparga, aged seventy-six, died here re cently. The mother, Mrs. A. Esparga, aged 110 years, took the death without CAT'S WAILS DISCLOSE DEATH. "I always knew he would die. I knew that I could never raise that boy." Los Angeles, June 28.-Mournful wails The aged woman, who is believed to i awake for a week. Finally a two-room the funeral. The family came here from shack was broken into. There lay the Mexico half a century ago. body of Frank Hamble, who had been fead a week. On his breast law a black

TWO KILLED IN WRECK.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 28.-Engine Hamble had been an athlete at the University of California. Later be be- both of Bowling Green, were killed and in the came a traveling agent for the Southern Pilot George Hampton was scalded, prob

BRIDEGROOM SETS 'EM UP. Predal to The Washington Hernd. Winsted, Conn., June 28.—John Graves. OF FEDERALS BESIEGING

American Government Intervenes in Southern Republic s Revolution-Gunboat Ends Bombardment of Puerto Plata After President Bordas, Head of Beleaguering Army, Had Failed to Heed Repeated Warnings-Action to Protect Foreigners.

ONLY FEW SHOTS NEEDED TO STOP FIRING

The United States has intervened in the revolution in Santo Doningo in order to protect Americans and foreigners in the besieged city of Puerto Plata. Under instructions from the Navy Department the gunboat Machias on Friday entered the harbor at Puerto Plata, and with her guns silenced the main battery of the federal artillery which

Secretary of the Navy Daniels last night gave out this statement f the occurrence:

"Acting under instructions from the department to protect lives and property of Americans and foreigners at Santo Domingo, during he struggle that is now going on between the forces of President Bordas and the revolutionists, Capt. Russell, of the South Carolina, who in charge of the American naval vessels at Santo Domingo, ordered the U. S. S. Machias to enter the inner harbor at Puerto Plata at opened fire with her main battery, on the Bordas artillery, which had BABE KILLED BY TRAIN begun a bombardment of the city, although warned not to do so.

Hole, and Boy Under Wheels, in Alexandria.

Br STAFF CORRESPONDENT. Alexandria, Va., June S.-Three acciresort was done other than the breaking len M. Downey and the late John T. cureless of the safety of the foreigners in Downey, 721 Gibbon street, both of this the belenguered city.

yards by a southbound Southern Rail- has been considerable.

ago. A man entered his office at night except the choking up of sewers, water The victims of the double drowning from the shore. They walked arm in ter that the bombs ting fire to the building. The fire was on shore who witnessed the accident.

William Ketland set to work to recover A genuine prank was played by the the bodies, diving for them.

An hour after the accident Hinken recovered the body of the Kelly girl, at a later recovered the body of the Downey girl at a point nearby.

The coroner could not be found at the motion. The place was so brilliantly time and the inquest was postponed until Both bodies were brought to Alexanthey saw no blaze. The machinery ran dria on a train and taken to Wheatley's undertaking establishment. More than a A number of trees in different parts hundred picnickers came up on the train

The Downey girl was the guest of Mr. stones, some as large as bird eggs and Mrs. Kelly and their daughter for The double drowning caused a pall among the excursionists who were spending the day in the vicinity of the Dyke Besides her mother, two brothers and two sisters survive the Downey girl.

Charles Brawner, the three-year-old son of Elmer Brawner of Del Ray, was anchored in the inner harbor and with struck and instantly killed by Southbound passenger train No. 15 at the stopped the artillery fire into the city. Potomac railroad yards. The lad was after which there was no further firing. who, at the point of a revolver, ordered left sitting in a small wagon, it is said. We have the situation well in hand and nim to halt and hold up his hands, James while his father went for ice to the Senning escaped being the victim of a licing station nearby. The child got out States or foreign, will be needed to precrossing the track when the train struck while he succeeded in keeping his own the child by Coroner R. J. Yates after which it was removed to the home of his father in Del Ray and prepared for SUNDAY'S HERALD burial.

PUTS OUT FIRE WITH FLOUR.

pecial to The Washington Herald. Milwaukee, June 28.—Flour was put to feeling, apparently, for she said to her a new service today by Mrs. A. Haule of 747 Fourth street. The experiment was decidedly successful. While heating water a leaky kerosene stove exploded. In the explosion oil was thrown around of a cat kept a whole neighborhood the oldest woman in the State, attended the kitchen from the tank of the stove. Instead of running from the house, Mrs. Haule showed her remarkable presence of mind by running into the pantry and picking up a bag of flour. he attacked the flames with the flour James Webb and Fireman John Hesly, the fire. She used one-half of the bag doing so. The fire was out when e department arrived.

CITY IN SANTO DOMINGO

BRITISH CONSUL WOUNDED BY THE REBELS:

5 o'clock Friday afternoon, and Few Shots Needed.

"Only a few shots were needed to put an abrupt end to the bombardment. "Th econditions existing at Puerto Plata for the past month have been increasingly intolerable, and in this time the belief has become well established in official and diplomatic circles here that American intervention would be inevitable in order to protect its own nationals and dental deaths of children was the Sun- those of other governments. This, it was day toll here today. Two met death by believed, was the only step which could It has been a mecca for the colored race drowning together at the Dyke, three prevent intervention by some other gove miles below this city, and one was killed ernment. The forces of the Santa Domingo government, which is headed by President Bordas, have been besieging The two children drowned were Loretta Puerto Plata for about six weeks. The Kelly, thirteen years, daughter of Mr. city is held by the rebel leader Arias, who and Mrs. Thomas F. Kelly, 25 South has proclaimed himself provisional presilaunches were sunk off the wharf at Alfred street, and Helen Leona Downey, dent of the republic. Both sides in the Marshall Hall, but no damage to the thirteen years old, daughter of Mrs. El- fighting have appeared to be absolutely

"The British consul was wounded by The victim of the railroad accident was the fire of the besiegers, and other fortages and farmhouses. Numerous small Charles Brawner, three years old. The eigners have been killed. The loss from boats are said to have been swept away, boy was killed at the Potomac railroad destruction of foreign property in the city

"Several times President Bordas has mains and damage to electric and tele- were in bathing only a short distance been warned by the United States Minis-Lightning struck a house at 80 Eighth fully ten to fifteen feet deep. Both involved to American and foreign citistreet northeast, occupied by W. Scott went down together and never came up zens and their property. The President has made promises to discontinue the bombardment, but failed to do so. In the past week the administration decided that Bonias must be forced to carry out his promise, and orders were sent to Capt, Russell, in command of the American vespoint near where she was drowned. Finks seis off Santo Domingo, to compel the artillery to cease firing. In accordance with his instructions, Capt. Rursell sent a message to Bordas, that if the bombardment which had been held up for several days was renewed. American guns would silence his fire. It was upon the failure of Bordas to fiscontinus firing at the end of the period fixed by Capt. Russell that orders were given to the American gunboat to proceed into the inner harbor and silence the federal guns. Capt. Russell's report to the department, which was received yesterday, fol-

Bordas artillery ashore fired shells into the city of Puerto Plata, the Machine some shots from her main battery no additional vessels, either United CONTINUED ON PAGE TEN.

An inquest was held over the body of RIGHTS OF WOMEN DISCUSSED IN Ida Husted Harper shows that twenty-three countries are actively engaged in working for equal franchise, while the "Furies" are hindering the movement in Great Britain.

THE OTHER SIDE ABLY PRESENTED BY MRS. HOWARD BROCK

Who declares crimes have increased, not decreased, in suffrage States. These articles are attracting great attention. They are worth reading

IN SUNDAY'S HERALD